153 Wheeler St, Corryong

Corryong's Hidden Gem

If you are looking for something special, then you must not look past this amazing property. This double bricked home at 153 Wheeler Street is nestled on almost 10926.5 meters of land, this hidden gem is located within the township of Corryong one not to miss.

This much-loved family home offers something for everyone from the spacious, light-filled living and dining room completed with wood and ducted heating and a recently installed reverse cycle, to the modern, newly renovated, well-equipped kitchen. Offering three generous sized bedrooms with built-in robes with the master featuring walk-in robes and a newly renovated ensuite bathroom. Central main bathroom featuring both a shower and bath with a separate toilet.

Stepping out onto the veranda around both the north and south side of the house, a place to sit and take in the natural light and listen to your surroundings. Entertain family and friends in the large alfresco area overlooking your private oasis. Other additions include a lock-up garage, large carport, established garden, extra acreage and 18 cells of solar power, and a water supply of both town and a large tank.

The acreage is divided into two with new fencing creating a small paddock and a small dam which can provide water to your very own animals.
